

Table of Contents

Abstract English
Abstract Chinese
Acknowledgements
Chapter One: Introduction	1
I. The motivation for writing this dissertation
II. The dissimilarities of Shakespearean tragedy and Greek and Rome tragedies
III. The introduction of each chapter
Chapter Two: The causes of misjudgements	10
I. Appearance and reality
II. Caused by personal flaws
III. Influenced by circumstance
Chapter Three: The result of misjudgements	29
I. The sufferings of the victims
II. The punishment of the victimizers
Chapter Four: The final catastrophes lead to reconciliation	53
I. Recognition is achieved from the final catastrophe
II. Personal nobility is restored
III. A society is reconstructed
Chapter Five: Conclusion	67
Understanding and knowledge gained from the research
Works cited	74
Bibliography	77